The second edition of the Summer School The poetry of Pier Paolo Pasolin: themes, forms and language will be held from the 11th to the 14th September at the Pier Paolo Pasolini Study Centre in Casarsa della Delizia (Pordenone). The school is a unique opportunity to study and exchange views with international scholars for further exploration of the work of Pier Paolo Pasolini through a higher education course. The lectures will be particularly devoted to the study of Pasolini's poems, by exploring the individual collections and delving more widely into the themes, the style and language, as well as in the ways in which, in the Pasolini 'workshop', the poetic form interacts and contaminates other genres and connects with its contemporary cultural storm.

The school is organized by the Pier Paolo Pasolini Study Centre of Casarsa, and is affiliated to the Équipe Littérature et Culture Italiennes (ELCI) de la Sorbonne Université, to the Department of Humanities of the University of Trieste, the Italian Society for the study of Literary Modernity (MOD), and is supported by the region of Friuli Venezia Giulia, the Municipality of Casarsa della Delizia and the Friuli Foundation.

The lectures are mainly aimed at university students, undergraduates and post-graduates of all nationalities who are able to prove their knowledge of the Italian language

The study programme is divided into six sessions and includes a didactic workshop in which young scholars will be able to discuss their research work with the school lecturers. A visit to the main Pasolinian places in Friuli is also scheduled. Each session will have two lectures of one and a half hours given by Italian and international specialists among whom are Marco A. Bazzocchi (University of Bologna), Luciano De Giusti (University of Trieste), Silvia De Laude (Université de Genève), Davide Luglio (Sorbonne University), Gianluca Picconi (Università di Genova), Maria Rizzarelli (University of Catania), Caterina Verbaro (University Lumsa Rome). Moreover, the students will have a chance to talk to Stefano Agosti (University of Venice) e Franco Zabagli (Gabinetto Vieusseux in Florence).

To take part you need to send in your application by the 30th of June 2019. The selected applicants, up to a maximum of 25, will receive a confirmation by the 15th of July and at the same time will be asked to pay their registration fee by the 30th of July. A limited number of places will be reserved for the students of the previous edition. The registration fee is 180 euros and includes registration and hospitality (three lunches, three dinners and overnight stay at the Hotel Al Posta at Casarsa della Delizia, Pordenone). The travel expenses will be borne by each student.

To submit your application please send an e-mail to the following address info@centrostudipierpaolopasolinicasarsa.it indicating your name, surname, and university, together with a curriculum vitae and a motivation letter (max 2000 characters); you should also report the subject of your research under way, the name of your supervisor (in the case of a graduate dissertation) and of your tutor (in the case of a Ph.D. dissertation or a research scholarship). Each participant will receive a certificate of attendance issued by the Pier Paolo Pasolini Study Centre for the purpose of your cv.
